“God is revealing to me something every day about the ToTheWorld mission, my life, new songs, what He is trying to accomplish through the messages of Our Lady and the relevance of this mission to the entire world. He reveals to me also the sadness of heaven; that so many have been blinded by Satan’s allurements and the material things of this world. It is being confirmed everyday to me that my mission is only beginning, and they prepare me in ways that are awesome. God's power is awesome, and I believe it is about to be unleashed as never before for all mankind to see. Seeking and fulfilling God's will is my only objective while I have life on this earth.”
